Leaders Seek Adjournment Of Congress

Some Bitter Disputes Still Face Solons, Itching To Go Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders struggled to bring the 87th Congress to a close today but conceded that Friday night was a more likely target for adjournment.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Democratic leader, said he had not entirely abandoned hope for closing shop tonight but that the hope was a dim one.

House leaders confidently predicted final adjournment late Friday.

Little progress was made on Wednesday in disposing of the few key bills remaining and no action was scheduled for most of them today.

But nearly every important measure left was in a position to be moved quickly to the White House if only a few bitter disputes could be settled.

Numerous behind-the-scenes conferences were called Wednesday, with White House prodding clearly in evidence, and the leaders said substantial progress was made on their thorniest problems.

One source, who asked not to be identified, said President Kennedy told Democratic leaders in no uncertain terms at a White House conference earlier in the week that he wants Congress out of Washington.

Kennedy was reported to have remarked acerbically that while he was out campaigning for more Democrats in Congress, the Democrats there weren't helping matters by squabbling and giving the impression they couldn't even adjourn.

Kennedy himself removed one big stumbling block by his last-minute signature on the pension bill for the self-employed.

This meant that Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., chief Senate sponsor of the measure, would remove his objection which has helped block consideration of a final supplemental money bill.

He cast his objection to delay adjournment and keep Congress in town in case Kennedy vetoed the pension measure.

However, Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., did not withdraw his objection.

He is leading the Senate in another round of tug-of-war with the House over prestige. This round involves a $5 billion agriculture appropriations bill.

He has been insisting on funds for construction of a number of new agriculture research facilities which the House opposes.

Postal Hike, U.S. Pay Boost Are Approved By President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today signed a bill raising postage rates, and boosting salaries for more than a million federal employees.

Kennedy hailed it as an important step toward putting the postal system on a self-sustaining basis and making federal jobs more attractive.

Among the changes: First class mail will cost five cents, air mail eight cents beginning next Jan. 7. With legislators who worked on the bill and representatives of postal unions watching, Kennedy put his signature to the legislation in his White House office as the first item on his day's schedule.

Kennedy, reading from a statement, said the new postal rates would bring in additional annual revenue amounting to $600 million.

The new law provides "broad reform" and flexibility in postal system salaries and puts them at a level which would help to prevent large-scale "attrition to private industry," he said.

Kennedy said the salary increases would help attract more capable people into federal employment and contribute to better productivity.

The legislative package signed into law combines two of Kennedy's major legislative proposals—pay increases and salary reform for 1.6 million federal workers, and new revenue to help run the deficit-ridden postal service.

The pay section of the bill calls for two-step raises averaging 9.6 per cent for 1 million "white collar" workers, and 11.2 per cent for 600,000 postal clerks and letter carriers.

The first step goes into effect next payday, the second step on Jan. 1, 1964. Cost of the increase will be $1.05 billion.

The new postal rates—chiefly a one-cent increase in first-class and airmail stamps, with smaller increases for second and third class users—are intended to bring in $600 million in new revenue after three years.

The new first class and air mail rates begin Jan. 7, 1963, but most of the second and third class increases are spread over three years.

Colorful Vatican Ecumenical Council Opens With Plea For Christian Unity

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII today opened the second Vatican Ecumenical Council—Roman Catholicism's greatest assembly of prelates in history—with an appeal for Christian unity.

The 80-year-old pontiff, in an address before some 2,500 council delegates in St. Peter's Basilica, said progress had already been made toward unity. He spoke specifically of a unity of prayers and aspirations and a unity of esteem and respect.

"Unfortunately," the Pope said, "the entire Christian family has not yet fully attained unity in truth."

"The Catholic Church, therefore, considers it her duty to work actively so that there may be fulfilled the great mystery of that unity, which Jesus Christ invoked with fervent prayer from His Heavenly Father on the eve of His sacrifice."

"She (the church) rejoices in peace, knowing that she is intimately associated with that prayer, and then exults greatly at seeing that invocation extend its efficacy with salutary fruit even among those who are outside her fold."

"Indeed, if one considers well this same unity which Christ implored for His church it seems to shine with a triple ray of beneficent supernatural light: namely, the unity of Catholics among themselves, which must always be kept exemplary and most firm; the unity of prayers and ardent desires with which those Christians separated from the apostolic see, aspire to be united with us; and the unity in esteem and respect for the Catholic Church which animates those who follow non-Catholic religions."

He said the Ecumenical Council "prepares, as it were, and consolidates the path toward that unity of mankind."

The Pope gave no direct indication of how he thought future unity might be achieved. But in the past he has made clear that he considers the way to unity is through the return of "separated brothers" to the Roman Catholic fold.

From over the globe more than 2,500 cardinals, archbishops, bishops, patriarchs and other prelates gathered around Pope John XXIII for this first general church council in nearly a century.

As the great bell of St. Peter's boomed the glad tidings of the council opening, the bells of Rome's more than 400 other churches took up the message.

Pope John and his bishops opened the council with prayers for guidance and a Mass imploring the aid of the Holy Ghost.

Rich red velvets hung from the basilica walls, setting off the white robes and mitres of the bishops sitting in two tiers of seats flanking the main aisle.

Historic Trade Law Is Signed

President Is Given Vast Tariff Powers

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy signed into law today an historic trade expansion bill giving him vast power to reduce most tariffs, repeal others and forge economic links with the booming European Common Market.

Administration leaders hailed the bill as the crowning legislative achievement of Kennedy's first two years in the White House.

The new trade program received strong support from both parties and from leaders of business and organized labor.

Opposition from protectionist groups was not as harsh as had been predicted, since the measure provides help for industries and workers when imports cause loss of business and jobs.

The administration was unable to block a provision that would restrict trade with Poland and Yugoslavia. But otherwise, Congress gave Kennedy almost exactly what he requested, plus additional authority to counter unjustifiable import barriers erected by other countries against American products.

The special authority to work out economic arrangements with the Common Market is regarded by the administration as the heart of the bill.

The booming six-nation area is looked upon as a potential vast new market for sales of American consumer goods and farm surpluses.

The six nations in the market are West Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Great Britain is negotiating to become a member.

The bill extends for five years, to June 30, 1967, the 28-year-old reciprocal trade agreements law initiated by Secretary of State Cordell Hull in Franklin D. Roosevelt's first term.

It gives the President authority in negotiating new trade pacts to cut all U.S. tariffs by 50 per cent.

In addition, he may negotiate for the complete elimination of duties on items for which the United States and the Common Market account for 80 per cent of world trade.

Ohio Tree Colors Now Nearing Peak

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Managers of Ohio's state parks report that trees will be bursting with color this weekend, with the peak of fall color scenery extending from the weekend into the middle of next week in most sections of the state.

Some sections, however, including the Hocking area in southeastern Ohio and the Hueston Woods area in southwestern Ohio, are reported somewhat past the peak stage primarily due to heavy rains and high winds of the past few days.

'Alpha 66' Opens War On Castro

Cuba Exiles To Attack Ships

NEW YORK (AP) — A Cuban exile group which calls itself Alpha 66 announced it is declaring war, effective today, on all ships carrying supplies to Cuba.

The announcement was made by Antonio Veciana, 35-year-old leader of the group which says it carried out a raid on Cuba's north coast Monday. He is a certified public accountant in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Veciana made the statement in a broadcast from San Juan for the American Broadcasting Co.

He said attacks will be carried out on any and all vessels, not just those from Iron Curtain countries.

Veciana gave ABC some details on Monday's reported raid on the Cuban port of Isabella de Sagna, 150 miles east of Havana.

He said his force of 30 men inflicted 20 casualties on what he termed "the enemy." Veciana said the casualties included both Russians and Cubans.

His force, said Veciana, suffered five casualties. He declined to say whether they were killed or wounded.

Veciana said the Puerto Rican-based Alpha 66 plans to carry out another such raid within the next two weeks and two more by the end of the month.

Meanwhile, negotiations hit a snag Wednesday night and the release of 1,113 Cuban invasion prisoners was delayed again. But Prime Minister Fidel Castro planned further talks with negotiator James B. Donovan, possibly later today or Friday.

The talks between Castro and the New York attorney were expected to end Wednesday night. But after the two met for four hours in the presidential palace, a spokesman for the Cuban prisoners' families committee said:

"Certain points have to be revised and this will take two or three further meetings."

There was nothing to indicate that the snag was caused by the claim of Cuban exiles that they raided the Cuban north coast port of Isabella de Sagna Monday and killed 20 persons.

There has been no confirmation of the raid nor any comment on the exiles' claim in Havana.

The committee's spokesman would not say what caused the hitch in negotiations but emphasized there would be further meetings, possibly today or Friday.

As the negotiations dragged on, informants in Havana said Pan American Airways has offered to fly the prisoners to Miami as soon as an agreement is reached.

The prisoners were captured in the Bay of Pigs invasion in April 1961. Castro originally asked $62 million in cash for the release of all those captured. Donovan reportedly has offered medicine and food in lieu of cash.

Relatives or friends have paid for the release of a few captives, and 60 sick or wounded prisoners were returned to Miami last April.

Informed sources in Washington say the U.S. government will pay for a shipment of about $13 million in medicine and food to Cuba if the prisoners are released.

Funds raised by friends and relatives of the captives in the United States and Latin American presumably will make up the remainder of the ransom demanded by Castro for their release.

Any U.S. payment to Castro is expected to kick up an uproar in Congress. Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., and Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., told the Senate they oppose any ransom payment.

Reports circulated in Washington that Donovan was acting for the administration in the negotiations as well as for the families committee. But Edwin Guthman, Justice Department information officer, denied a story in the New York World-Telegram and Sun that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy asked Donovan to take on the assignment last June, saying the White House had a moral obligation to obtain the release of Cubans captured in an invasion the United States allowed to go ahead.

An informed member of Congress insisted, however, that Donovan is acting as an agent for the administration with the full approval of President Kennedy and the attorney general.

Wilmington Campus Has Bomb Scare

WILMINGTON — "There's a bomb in Friends Hall at Wilmington College due to go off at 5 a. m. today," an unidentified man told city police in a telephone call at 2:41 a. m. Thursday.

The dispatcher asked the mysterious caller to repeat his message; he did and hung up.

That started a hectic morning for the 85 girls in the Friends Hall dormitory and for city police, a fireman and a state patrolman who turned the building inside-out for a bomb that wasn't there.

After receiving the call, two city policemen notified Mrs. Hazel Blair, head resident at the dormitory, W. Brooke Morgan, college business manager, John Carr, college service director, and Fire Chief Harry Hague III.

Mrs. Blair rang the fire alarm summoning the girls to the main lobby and told them to leave the building. Later each was instructed to search her room. Other parts of the building were covered by Morgan, Hague, Carr and the two policemen.

After 45 minutes, nothing had been found that even looked like a bomb.

Other campus dormitories were not alerted.

Police Chief Stanley Erwin said an attempt is now being made to learn the identity of the caller. "Giving false information of this kind is a federal offense that carries a heavy sentence. We hope this will be the last of such happenings," Chief Erwin said.

Special Jury To Be Called

DiSalle Gives Order In Liquor Scandal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Robert M. Draper ordered a special grand jury impaneled today to investigate charges of influence peddling in the state liquor department.

His order followed a request by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle for Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy to conduct an investigation of charges by a Chicago distiller that he paid to have his whiskey listed for sale by state liquor stores.

Court attaches indicated that the drawings of names for grand jury duty will start today and that the tribunal will be ready to sit next Monday.

DiSalle's order went out to McElroy Wednesday night after he previously indicated that an investigation by a regular grand jury would be satisfactory. He gave no explanation for the change.

The call for an investigation stems from charges made in a letter to Liquor Director George Dick from Joseph H. Makler, president of Waterfill & Frazier, Chicago distillery firm.

Makler said he had to pay so-called influence money to Famous Brands Inc. of Dayton before Waterfill & Frazier products would be listed in the state stores and the products were delisted when he refused further payments.

Efforts of state officials to reach Makler since receipt of the letter have been fruitless. McElroy said he has exhausted all efforts to bring Makler to Ohio as a voluntary witness and now will pursue whatever lawful methods might be used to force him to testify.

You're Invited To Inspect New Improvements

WHS Open House Sunday

The new Washington High School cafeteria, the redecorated auditorium and the new biology laboratory will be open for inspection between the hours of 1 and 3 p. m. Sunday.

Superintendent and Mrs. Marshall D. Boggs, members of the Board of Education and their wives, Mrs. Violet Lytton, cafeteria supervisor, and a number of teachers will be present to greet visitors.

Coffee and cookies will be served. Residents of the city school district and their friends from other school districts are invited to inspect the improvements. Visitors may enter either the Temple St. or Paint St. doors.

Signs will direct guests, and ushers will assist them. School officials will give visitors a breakdown on how the money from the $226,000 improvement bond issue, passed two years ago, has been spent.

Approximately $91,000 of this amount was spent for constructing and equipping the cafeteria which serves an average of 1,025 students daily.

$61,871 Price Tag Includes Basement

Fire Station Bid Gets Council OK

City Council ordered the go-ahead Wednesday night on construction of an addition to the fire station.

It authorized City Manager David Foell to award the contract to Washington C. H. Construction Co. Inc., on a low bid of $61,871.

The bid includes $46,437 for construction of the basic two-story addition and $15,434 for a basement, the only one of five proposed alternates approved by Council.

The addition will be located on the lot directly north of the fire station and will provide the additional space needed to house the city's new fire pumper and quarters for 11 new firemen to be hired next year.

Two other firms submitted bids for the project. A. E. McFarlane, Newark, a base bid of $49,923.40, and $18,000 more with a basement, and Lisk Construction Co., Washington C. H., a base bid of $53,808.43, and $9,514.80 more with a basement.

WORK on the project is expected to be started soon and completed by next spring.

The vote to authorize the contract came after a lengthy discussion of the entire fire department expansion program being financed under a two-mill fire protection levy approved last November. The program is designed to advance Washington C. H. from a 7th to 6th fire insurance classification.

City Auditor Clarence A. Christman Jr. submitted for Council's consideration two lists of suggested expenses for the program totaling $115,468.25. The figure includes $50,512 from the levy in 1962, $53,993 from the levy in 1963 and $11,311 on hand in the city pumper fund.

One list, based on construction of an addition without any alternates at a cost of $46,437, would enable the city to hire 11 new firemen on July 1, 1963. The other, based on an addition containing all alternates at a cost of $64,786, would require the city to wait until the last week in November to hire the 11 new firemen.

COUNCIL chose the latter program, but by trimming the cost of the addition to $61,871 by eliminating all but the basement alternate, advanced the hiring date to October or late September.

However, to carry out the building program during the winter it will be necessary for the city to borrow approximately $40,000 on a six-month basis, the money to be paid back when funds from the levy become available next spring.

Foell said the city expects to begin holding examinations for the new firemen in the early part (Please Turn To Page 2)

JFK Signing Of Pension Bill Said Peace Gesture To Medics

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's action in signing a self-employed pension bill was widely interpreted today as a peace gesture to the doctors who opposed his program of health care for the elderly.

Kennedy has been depicted as reluctant to let the measure become law. It permits self-employed persons such as doctors and lawyers to set up tax-exempt pensions for themselves and their employees.

The fact that the President wasn't very pleased with the bill seemed to be substantiated by his silence in signing it. The usual White House statement and ceremonies which accompany such actions were conspicuously missing.

Reports of the President's reluctance were so widespread that Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., sponsor of the bill, contributed his efforts toward keeping Congress in session so the measure could be pocket-vetoed.

When Congress is meeting, a bill becomes law without the President's signature if he does not sign or veto it in 10 days. If Congress is in adjournment, a President can kill a measure simply by not acting on it in 10 days. Midnight Wednesday was the 10-day deadline for the self-employed bill.

Kennedy has been represented as being angry at the doctors who joined in the campaign that ended in Senate defeat of his proposal to finance health care for those over 65 through Social Security taxes.

He also obviously doesn't like the $115-million bite the self-employed pension plan will make in yearly Treasury revenues.

But sponsors of the measure had argued with him that giving the doctors something most of them want might help ease their opposition to his general program, if not to the health care item. And he was reminded that a lot of lawyers, farmers, barbers and small business men are self-employed and would like to have a tax break which would help them lay away something for a rainy day.

Cabbie Forced To Make Trip To Newark

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — Portsmouth taxi driver Walter Bowman picked up a fare at the Portsmouth bus station Wednesday. He wound up 100-odd miles away, robbed, and with a gun at his neck before a state highway patrolman rescued him by chance.

Arrested on Ohio 13 north of here and facing charges of kidnapping and armed robbery was Bowman's passenger, identified as Lige Johnny Tomlin, 35, of Olive Hill, Ky., a parolee.

The rescue came when patrolman J. W. Stickle saw the taxi cross a yellow line. He pulled it over. In questioning Bowman, he was advised the cabbie was covered by a gun. The officer got Tomlin out and found he had a .25 caliber automatic.

Bowman, 43, of Rt. 1, Portsmouth, said Tomlin called his cab for a trip to Lancaster. When they got to Lancaster, he said, Tomlin drew the gun and made him proceed north toward Mansfield — about twice as far as Lancaster and 155 miles from Portsmouth. During the trip, Bowman added, the passenger robbed him of a sum under $10.

The patrol said Tomlin, held here overnight, probably will be prosecuted at Lancaster.

Levy Renewal Backed By Cherry Hill PTA

The Cherry Hill School Parent-Teacher Association endorsed the five-year, two-mill levy renewal proposal for the city schools and voted to contribute $10 to the campaign to support it. It will be submitted to the voters at the Nov. 6 election.

The action was taken at the PTA's first meeting of the school year Wednesday night during the business session conducted by Wilford Holdren, president.

The group voted to participate in the combined meeting of all five PTA units in the city Nov. 14 in Washington High School auditorium.

Leonard Gwizdowski explained the Science Research Association's reading procedures by which the child competes with himself to improve his reading ability.

Richard Meyer, vice chief of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. here, explained the direct distance dialing system which will be put into effect Nov. 18. He was introduced by Mrs. Elmer Castle, program chairman.

The attendance banner went to the second grade room taught by Miss Jane Durant for having the most parents at the meeting. Pupils of the fourth grade room taught by Mrs. Edna Watts sold the most PTA memberships.

Coffee and doughnuts were served by a committee headed by Dr. and Mrs. Ned Abbott during the get-acquainted hour after adjournment.

PTA Members Here To Attend Meeting

Mrs. Harford Hankins Jr., president of the Washington C. H. Parent-Teacher Association Council, and Mrs. Burdette Johnson, secretary, will be among some 3,000 Ohio PTA leaders expected to attend the 57th annual state convention in Cincinnati next Monday through Wednesday.

Mrs. Hankins said there also will be delegates from each of the five PTA groups — Belle Aire, Rose Avenue, Eastside, Sunnyside and Cherry Hill. They probably will be officers or committee chairmen.

Delegates will be welcomed Monday by Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers president, Mrs. Smith Witter, of Marion, Business, including committee reports, will be transacted at the first meeting. Information and instruction in the various features of PTA activity will be offered.

Chamber Won't Handle Baskets

'Clearing House' Activity Halted

The Washington C. H. Area Chamber of Commerce will no longer serve as a clearing house for distribution of Christmas baskets.

Chamber directors voted Wednesday night to discontinue this activity as incompatible with the function of the Chamber and instructed William L. Stoughton, Chamber manager, to attempt to interest another organization in taking it over.

The Chamber has operated the clearing house for several years. Stoughton said the clearing house has taken an increasingly larger share of the Chamber's time in recent years.

The directors voted to endorse the two-mill school operating levy up for renewal in the November election. The vote was taken after they heard a discussion of the levy and the needs of the schools by Cecil Reobuck, elementary coordinator of the Washington school system.

Ed Vollette, a Chamber director, was appointed chairman of a special committee which will evaluate the Chamber's dues structure and attempt to determine if it is possible to arrive at a more equitable method of assessing dues.

Russ Hinchey, chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee, reported on the campaign being conducted against passage of Issue No. 1 in the November election. Issue No. 1 would amend the constitutional provision governing the operation of business establishments on Sunday. The Chamber board had previously voted to oppose the amendment.

The directors approved a proposal from Stoughton and Fire Chief George R. Hall that the Chamber enter the 1962 "Inter-Chamber Fire Safety Contest" sponsored by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. The contest selects those fire departments which have done the most during the year to promote fire prevention and fire safety.

Stoughton told the directors that local participation in the contest would be based on the program now under way to expand the fire department and advance Washington C. H. from a 7th to 6th fire insurance classification.

The manager reported receipt of two industrial inquiries during the month. All information requested, plus additional detailed data on Washington C. H. was sent to the prospects, he said.

The directors approved a proposal from Stoughton and Fire Chief George R. Hall that the Chamber enter the 1962 "Inter-Chamber Fire Safety Contest" sponsored by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. The contest selects those fire departments which have done the most during the year to promote fire prevention and fire safety.

Stoughton told the directors that local participation in the contest would be based on the program now under way to expand the fire department and advance Washington C. H. from a 7th to 6th fire insurance classification.

The manager reported receipt of two industrial inquiries during the month. All information requested, plus additional detailed data on Washington C. H. was sent to the prospects, he said.

Officers Investigate 3 Minor Accidents

Three minor accidents were investigated by police and sheriff's department officers Wednesday evening. No injuries were reported.

The first occurred at 4:52 p. m., when a car driven by John W. Persinger, 56, of Chillicothe, who was backing into a parking space in the 200 block of E. Court St., struck the left rear fender of a parked car owned by Robert Welch, 1239 Rawlings St. Damage to the Welch car was listed at $30. No damage was reported to the other car.

At 5:55 p. m., cars driven by Nelson L. Ford, 45, Greenfield, and John Johnston, 30, Rt. 1, Jeffersonville, collided on North St. There was slight damage to both vehicles.

Sherriff's deputy F. H. Perone investigated a third accident at 5:10 p. m., 11 miles east of Washington C. H. on Rt. 62.

Herman F. Hefey, 26, Columbus, driving a south bound Donaldson Bakery truck skidded in gravel and struck the rear of a commercial tractor driven by Donald C. Nelson, 23, Middleport, who had braked to avoid hitting a farm tractor-haler assembly. The Donaldson truck suffered $200 damage.

HOW THE WEATHER LOOKS
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Extreme Northeast Ohio reported thunderstorms during the night, but most of the state remained clear.

At Conneaut, strong winds and hail occurred about 2 a. m. This was part of the same storm system that caused tornadoes in Wisconsin Wednesday.

Ohio temperatures early today ranged from 56 at Zanesville to 64 at Toledo.

A fine Indian Summer day is forecast for Ohio today. Afternoon temperatures are expected to reach the 80s generally. Moderate southerly winds will lift temperatures well above normal, which at this season is in the upper 60s.

The warm weather will continue tonight and Friday, but cloudiness will increase Friday and there may be a few isolated showers by Friday afternoon.

Rally Day Sunday At Pilgrim Church

Special Rally Day services, climaxing the four-week Fall Enlargement Campaign, will be held Sunday at the Pilgrim Holiness Church, 312 Rose Ave., the Rev. A. T. Adams, pastor, announced.

The campaign, he explained, is sponsored annually by the church Sunday School and youth organization.

Pilgrim Sunday Schools in the United States and Canada, the Rev. Mr. Adams said, have grown from 35,000 to 75,000 in the last 16 years. The goal, he added, is 100,000 by 1968.

The Rev. Mr. Adams will deliver a sermon on "Families For Christ" during the 10:45 a. m. worship service. Awards will be presented to all new member families at the service and each new Sunday School member will be presented an enrollment certificate.

Two United States presidents were bachelors when elected to office—James Buchanan and Grover Cleveland. Cleveland, however, married during his first term while Buchanan remained single.

of 1963 in order to build up the Civil Service eligibility list so enough qualified men will be available for hiring when funds become available.

Fire Chief George R. Hall urged construction of the basement to the new addition. He said it would provide needed space for testing, cleaning and drying hose and a room for conducting training sessions and for meetings of the Washington C. H. Firemen's Association, the organization of regular and volunteer firemen.

IN OTHER MATTERS:
Council approved a request by the Rev. Jim Henry, pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, for authority to connect the church's new building under construction at 1205 Leesburg Ave., just outside the corporation, with the city sewer line.

The city manager was authorized to award contracts for new sidewalks to the lowest and best bidder after the bids are opened next Monday. He said this is needed to expedite the work so it can be completed before winter.

Council ordered installation of the sidewalks at seven different locations several weeks ago.

An ordinance was passed amending Codified Ordinance No. 1600.1 governing the regulation of signs over the public right-of-way. The amendment provides that "no display sign shall be erected, or until play sign shall be erected, or attached to, suspended from or supported on a building or structure until a permit for the same has been issued by the building official. Excepting signs for political or charitable organizations of a temporary nature, not to be displayed more than four months."

PRECEDING The Council session, councilmen held their quarterly meeting with the trustees of Washington Cemetery.

John Spangler, superintendent, reported receipts during the third quarter ending Sept. 30 were $6,547.76 which, together with a balance of $5,310.97 carried over from July 1, left a sub total of $11,858.73.

Expenditures during the quarter totaled $7,583.77, leaving a balance on hand on Sept. 30 of $4,274.96, Spangler reported.

The superintendent said 30 interments were made in Washington Cemetery and one each at St. Colman, Sugar Creek Methodist and Sugar Creek Baptist cemeteries during the quarter.

Treasurer Confirmed
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate confirmed Wednesday President Kennedy's nomination of Rep. Kathryn E. Granahan, of Philadelphia, a Democrat, to be treasurer of the United States.

Self-Appointed Joy Spreaders

NEW YORK (AP)—No business office today is complete without its unofficial morale boosters.

Most large firms have a personnel department which officially tries to pep up the group loyalty of employees with such fringe benefits as free turkey raffles, bowling leagues and annual picnics and dances.

The attitude of the average hired hand toward these organized corporate goodwill gestures ranges from one of darkest suspicion to one of ready opportunism.

The philosophy of the opportunist may be expressed thusly: "If the company is giving it away for nothing I'll take it—even if it's only a framed photograph of the board chairman. After all, I can throw his picture away, and still keep the frame."

But in addition to its paid cheer leaders, every office also has its quota of self-appointed joy spreaders. They take upon themselves the task of convincing the rest of the herd that life can still be wondrous—even if a fellow does have to work every day for a living.

Perhaps the following characters of this ilk are familiar in your own office:

"Nostalgic Ned"—He tries to make everyone feel grateful by telling how much worse things used to be in the old days.

"Why," he wheezes, "You would not believe it. I can remember when we stood up at attention when the boss entered, they gave us only a quarter hour for lunch, and they doctored part of your pay if you made more than two trips a day to the men's room."

"Flannelmouth Fred"—He spends most of his time going around indiscriminately patting all the other employees on the back and saying, "You're doing a grand job."

Secretly, he hopes this will bring him to the eye of management as a man with executive talent. But the rest of the hired hands are sour on Fred. They know that after they finish doing their work, he'll ask them to help him do his.

"Rainbow-top Rosalee"—The executive secretary, a glamor gal with a middle-aged spread, fondly believes she gives every man in the place a thrill by tinting her hair a different exciting color every month.

She would be distressed to know that half the men merely think she is off her rocker, and the other half think her wig has faded.

"Bankrupt Ben"—This guy is a reverse philanthropist. "Lend me $50," he wheedles. If you do, he feels that he has benefited you by giving you a fresh interest in living and a new hope—the wild hope that somehow, some day, he may pay you back.

"Woeful Wilbert"—"Gee, I wish I was on top of my job the way you are," he sighs enviously to each and all. Wilbert, who was born with 12 thumbs, is always in trouble. But he makes all the other employees—who were born with only 11 thumbs—feel like unrecognized geniuses.

"The Great Himself"—The boss has his own inimitable way of giving everybody a shot in the arm. Along about this time of year he posts a notice on the bulletin board saying:

"If business keeps up like this, we probably won't lay off half the staff at Christmas—we'll lay off two-thirds."

What would office life be like without these choristers of sweetness and light, who in their various ways do so much to reconcile us to the wear and tear of the long rut and the daily routine?

Inside You And Yours

By DR. BURTON FERN

Tears poured out when Junior tumbled down the cellar stairs and hit his head on the concrete. Now he's upchucking and you can't find a doctor. What do you do?

Watch for special danger signs.

Most head injuries are only skin-deep. Delicate brain tissue is protected by soft packing and a thick, bony skull.

Still, bumps and bruises sometimes tear through the brain or start swelling. Nearby blood vessels break and bleed. Sometimes hours pass before you recognize the danger.

Bleeding threatens life because the skull has no give and a painful pressure begins to build.

If He's Unconscious

Watch out for head injuries that leave your youngster unconscious—even for a moment! They often herald trouble.

That swelling pressure makes Junior fussy and irritable. He'll fidget restlessly and pick at his food. He may upchuck and turn ghostly white.

Don't worry! Vomiting isn't always serious. Swallowed tears irritate stomach lining and often erupt long after crying stops.

Stumbling, weakness and paralysis may begin suddenly. Crossed eyes and unequal pupils—one tiny, one wide—also signal danger.

Often you can feel the increased pressure bulging through the soft spot on top of Baby's head.

Emergency Surgery

Growing pressure inside the skull eventually chokes off blood flow. The brain stops working and Junior lapses into coma. Only emergency surgery can relieve the pressure and save him.

The sooner the operation, the better his chances. When danger threatens, don't wait. Rush him to the nearest hospital.

Rouse Him Often

Phone Came In Handy To Woman Stuck On Job

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U.S. — Tele- phone Company officials say there's one Ohio housewife who particularly is happy that she has an extension phone in her kitchen.

The lady, whom they gallantly did not identify, was cleaning between her refrigerator and kitchen counter and squirmed into a narrow area to do a thorough job. She got stuck.

But fortunately she could just reach the telephone. She phoned police, who sent out a couple of husky officers to wrestle away the refrigerator and rescue her.

er head injuries. You can let Junior doze, but rouse him every few hours. You want to make sure he's not lapsing into coma.

Wake him two or three times during the night, too—just in case. Your eyes are worth a thousand X-rays.

X-rays help pinpoint skull fractures, but you're worried about the contents—not the container!

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Negro in America has made more progress in the past 25 years—to ward equal treatment with whites—than in the rest of this country's history. He still has a long way to go, both in the North and the South.

Only about 25 per cent of Negroes eligible to vote in 11 Southern states have been registered to do so.

Only about one-third of the public school districts in the 17 Southern and border states have been desegregated to some degree. And Negroes frequently complain of discrimination, in some Northern school districts.

A little more than half the tax-supported colleges and universities in the 17-state Southern and border area have been desegregated in practice or principle.

Yet the constitutional provisions to give Negroes undiscriminated equal treatment in voting and the usual spheres of living have been on the books almost 100 years, the 14th and 15th Amendments.

But the Supreme Court in the latter part of the 19th century boiled the meaning out of these protections for the Negro.

In 1896 it handed down a famous decision saying it was all right to segregate Negroes so long as they got treatment equal to that of whites. It was the doctrine of separate but equal.

It was too much for one justice, John M. Harlan, who protested in a dissenting opinion "our Constitution is color blind." It was to be 58 years before the men on the Supreme Court of another day—1954—agreed with Harlan and reversed the ruling of 1896.

The first chipping away at the 1896 decision came in 1917 in a decision which for some odd reason has been generally ignored in books on the court.

That year the court knocked out a Louisville city ordinance separating white and Negro residential districts because, the court said, it denied Negroes the equal protection guaranteed by the 14th Amendment of 1868.

But this didn't really jolt segregation. The jolts began in 1938 when Missouri, which had no law school for Negroes, refused to let a Negro enter the state's white law school.

The court—harping back to that separate but equal doctrine of 1896—said Missouri was treating the Negro unequally when it barred him from the white school without providing him with one for Negroes.

The court didn't say segregating the Negro in a Negro school was unlawful.

In short, it still stuck to 1896. Other decisions of this nature followed, with the court always ducking the central question: Isn't segregation by its very nature unequal under the 14th Amendment?

The court finally faced the question in 1954 when, in one of its truly momentous decisions, it ordered public schools desegregated with a ruling that knocked out the 1896 decision completely by saying separate means unequal. Many other steps followed in many fields, always slowly.

The court has ruled out segregation on buses and trains.

Congress in 1957 and 1960, for the first time in this century, passed civil rights laws to give Negroes more protection, especially in voting.

James Marlow

Some of the picture as it is now follows in figures provided by the Justice Department, the U.S. Civil Rights Commission and private sources:

Voting—About 1,400,000 Negroes, out of 5,045,000 eligible, have been registered to vote in 11 Southern states.

Public schools—About 960 school districts—out of 3,047 with white and Negro students in 17 Southern and border states—have now been desegregated to some degree. This fall 46 additional districts opened with some desegregation. Only four of them were under court order to desegregate.

Colleges and universities—Of the 285 tax-supported schools on this level in the 17 states about 155 have been desegregated in practice or principle.

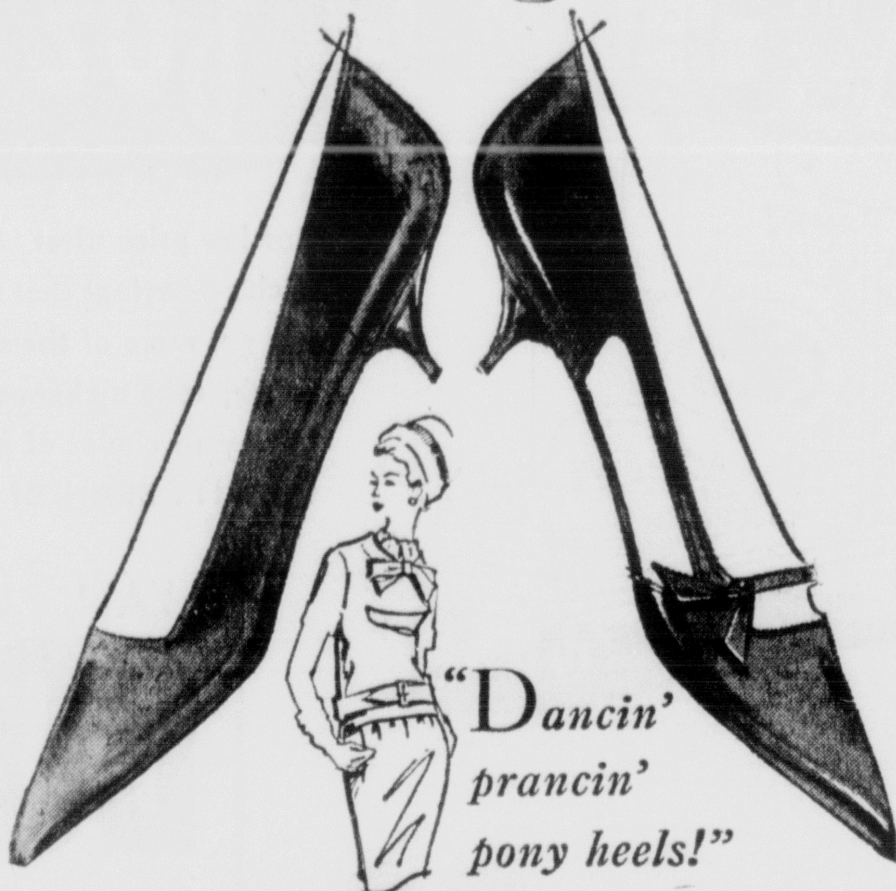

Eating facilities—About 116 Southern cities have at least one establishment that has desegregated eating facilities. In some cities, like Atlanta, desegregation has extended to other areas, like department stores, chain stores and some restaurants.

Hotels—Many Southern hotels now accept Negroes.

Employment—Equal opportunity for Negroes in employment hasn't made much progress.

City police and fire departments—About 560 Negroes are employed in Southern city police and fire departments in uniform. There are about 100 Negro detectives in the region, too.

Dear Abby:

by Abigail Van Buren

Nettled By The Needle!

DEAR ABBY: Our 19-year-old son has just come home on a 30-day furlough after spending 26 months in the Navy.

We almost fainted when we saw him. This handsome, 6 ft. 2 in. boy of ours is tattooed like a circus freak. Both arms, from his shoulders down to his wrists, are covered with flags, scrolls, snakes, motifs and initials. Even the backs of his hands and fingers are decorated. And to cap it off, each ear lobe has a flower on it! He is the talk of the town. Needless to say, he has received a very cool reception from all his old friends. Long-sleeved shirts can cover his arms, but he can't hide his fingers and ear lobes.

He realizes now it was a foolish mistake, and wants to remove the tattoos as soon as possible. Can it be done? We will pay whatever it costs, and will send him anywhere to have it done.

MOTHER'S PLEA

DEAR MOTHER: Consult a dermatologist (skin specialist) for information on removing tattoos. I'm afraid your son is in for some more needling.

DEAR ABBY: My wife wants to go to work and I do not want her to. I have a good job and am able to provide her with a very good living, but it doesn't appear to be enough. She wants so many things that our budget will not allow, and thinks if she goes to work she can have more clothes, a better car, etc. We have three children who need her attention and supervision badly. She wants to hire a woman to care for the children. How can I get through to her?

PROVIDER

DEAR PROVIDER: Tell your wife that when you need two jobs in the family you will have both of them. If she will figure in the costs of a substitute mother, the wear and tear on clothes, transportation and the intangible losses from fragmenting the family, she may realize how little ahead she could be.

DEAR ABBY: I have just come through the ragged agony of ending an affair. Make no mistake, it was "love" on my part, but no love can survive the endless hours of waiting, the tortured jealousy of seeing the man you love with the woman who is lawfully and publicly his.

There never was any talk of his leaving his home, but like any woman in love I believed that eventually I would have him for myself if I gave enough—and waited. This is not true. An affair is only "an affair." Print this, Abby, in the hope that it will spare just one woman the heartbreak of wasting her love and her best years. I'm guilty, too.

BORN TO LOSE

CONFIDENTIAL TO BRUCE: Keep right on wearing that nail polish, and if the boys tease you about it, hit them with your purse.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Pawn Shop Said 'No' To Unusual Request

SPARTANBURG, S. C. (U.S. — Mrs. Carol Eastwood, employed at a Spartanburg pawn shop, said a man walked into the shop and asked if he could pawn his leg.

She smiled and said she thought she misunderstood the man and asked that he repeat the question. The man countered that it wasn't funny and pulled up his trousers to the knee, displaying two artificial legs.

"I had to turn down his request," Mrs. Eastwood said.

Venus-Bound Satellite Data Is Revised

Mariner 2 Expected To Miss Planet By 20,000 Mile Distance

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Aeronautics and Space Administration revised earlier estimates for its Venus-bound Mariner 2 Wednesday, saying the space probe will miss the planet by 20,000 miles instead of 9,000.

The space agency said this is still within the pie-shaped target area extending from 5,000 to 40,000 miles from Venus, "Well within the region where the scientific planetary experiments are expected to be very effective."

In the first report on scientific information gathered by the space probe, NASA scientists disclosed that:

1. The rate of flow of very small particles in deep space is at least 1,000 pounds less than that reported by instruments aboard satellites orbiting near the earth. They said this shows that, "We are measuring some sort of concentration near the earth, a fact of significance for man in space programs."

2. There apparently always is at least some plasma or atmospheric gas flowing in interplanetary space—at least, there has been for the month of Mariner 2 measure ments taken thus far.

3. Measurements taken by the Venus probe are consistent with those taken by Pioneer V, thus tending to support confidence in results obtained by both space craft.

4. In addition to the magnetic fields radiating outward from the sun, there are transverse magnetic fields at right angles to those from the sun. These transverse fields may impede solar radiation.

5. Particle radiation from the sun appears generally to be steady, and strong, more like a solar wind than a solar breeze. This wind is strong enough to stretch out and distort solar magnetic fields.

Dr. Homer E. Newell, director of NASA's Office of Space Sciences, said there is nothing in the findings of Mariner 2 to provide any reason for not going ahead with manned space flight.

The craft was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., Aug. 27.

To date the space probe has traveled about 50 million miles. At 10 a.m. EST it was 7.25 million miles from the earth, traveling at a speed of 7,500 miles an hour with relation to the earth or 65,000 miles an hour with relation to the sun, faster than the earth rotates around the sun.

Lock Me In The Cooler Gun-Waving Men Told

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Liquor store clerk Roger J. Abbott took it calmly when two men waved a gun in his face.

"Now wait a minute, fellas," he suggested. "We're fully insured. I don't want any trouble. Why don't you lock me in the cooler like everybody else does?"

The robbers complied. They also took $160, a six-pack of beer and two cartons of cigarettes.

IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD

Fairfield County Medics Campaign Against Moeller

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Walter Moeller, D-Ohio, said today an Ohio medical group is planning a letter campaign in an attempt to brand him as a man "trying to destroy private enterprise, our freedom and our security."

He said he obtained a copy of a suggested form letter the group is mailing to doctors with instructions to send copies of it to their patients just before the Nov. 6 election.

The Lancaster Democrat said the form letter does not mention him by name, but says "the present congressman is a liberal with socialistic tendencies who is trying to destroy private enterprise, our freedom and our society."

He identified the group as the Medical Society of Fairfield County, his home county. A number of doctors, he said, have told him they would take no part in the campaign.

Moeller said he also obtained a set of instructions—mailed with the suggested form letter—which says: "The doctors and their nurses are not to release one single copy of this letter in order to prevent the opposition from obtaining a copy."

Moeller, who represents the 10th district, declined to say where he obtained copies of the instructions and the form letter which he said supports his Republican opponent, Homer E. Abele.

He called the letter shocking, and said he could not understand how such a charge could seriously be leveled at him, since he has top security clearance as a member of the House Space Committee.

Moeller also said he could not understand the basis for any medical group attacking him, unless it is in connection with President Kennedy's proposed medical care plan for the aged.

He said he has had no chance to vote on any of the medical care measures because they never came to a vote in the house. The Senate earlier this year killed the President's medical care proposal for this session of Congress.

Moeller said he favors some type of federal help to protect old people whose savings might be wiped out by serious illness, but it is not sold on the Kennedy plan.

The form letter does not mention the proposed federal medical care programs, Moeller added, but includes a paragraph objecting to "any public official with liberal socialistic ideas that promotes government control of your life and mind."

Moeller said the instruction sheet advises any doctors who use the form letter not to mention him by name in any postscript, but to use the words "present congress man."

The instructions, he added, suggest that each doctor add a postscript in ink "to make the letter more personal."

Moeller said the instructions also recommend mailing the form letters no earlier than Nov. 1 for delivery to patients on Nov. 3 or Nov. 5.

Mrs. Nessell Entertains Group

Mrs. Jerry Nessell was hostess to members of the Comrades of the Second Mile at her home Tuesday night. Bouquets of fall flowers, arranged by Mrs. Haskell Crockett, were used in profusion throughout the home.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Harold McConaughy, who welcomed the group. Mrs. Robert Parrett, treasurer, gave her report. Devotions were given by Mrs. Charles Cunningham.

Plans were made for Thanksgiving plates and Mrs. Loren Noble was named chairman. The plates will be filled at the home of Mrs. Alice Cory.

The highlight of the evening was the showing of slides taken by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bitzer, and shown by Mrs. Bitzer. They toured 15,000 miles and spent seven weeks visiting Alaska, the Seattle World's Fair and Western states. Mrs. Bitzer made fitting commentary on her pictures.

Mrs. Nessell was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Roger Rapp and Mrs. Rex Bloomer to 28 members and four guests. Mrs. Nancy Pitzer, Mrs. Vivian Voorhes, Mrs. Anna Mae Pope and Mrs. J. D. Mace.

Progress Club Meets With Miss Baker

The Jeffersonville Progress Club met Tuesday evening with Miss Corinne Barker with 18 members and two guests answering roll call by naming a man in research.

The president Miss Helen Fuels, opened the meeting by reading a quotation from Charles F. Kettering "There exists limitless opportunities in every industry. Where there is an open mind, there will always be a frontier."

Miss Louise Fuels read the first paper of the evening "Boss Ket." She told how at a very early age, he had to know how everything was put together and what made it run. Boss Ket told his co-workers, "the thing I'd like to get across is that there are no limits to the und one things. They come along and will come along with the calendar. One way is by discovery which is accidental of course, one by invention and the third is by systematic research. What is ahead of us can be anything you like because we know practically nothing about anything. The only thing we do is to give Latin and Greek names to those things we don't know so that we can get away with it."

Bos Ket established the Kettering Foundation in Yellow Springs in 1927 for research experts and was willing to spend millions of dollars to further its cause, for Charles Franklin Kettering firmly believed that "It is man's destiny to ponder on the riddle of human existence and, as a by-product of his wonderment create new life on earth."

The second paper was given by Mrs. Emma Vannorsdall "A Nation of Sheep" by William J. Lederer, co-author of the "Ugly American." It deals with our bungling and failures in Laos, China, Turkey, Cuba, Chile, Bolivia, Indonesia, Vietnam, Iran, Iraq, Korea and Formosa.

Mrs. Vannorsdall stated "we aided our enemies by our blunders to turn large areas of the world against us. The defeat of America need not be accomplished by destructive weapons and violence. There are easier and cheaper ways of conquering a politically incompetent nation. Psychological weapons, economic strangulation, political trickery and intellectual subversion. If the present propaganda hocus pocus and dumb sheep - like acceptance of everything by citizens continues, the author predicts a difficult future for the United States of America. A nation cannot survive for long on a shift and slippery foundation of self deception and misinformation."

Delicious refreshments in keeping with the fall season were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Charles Keller.

Mrs. Hughes Hostess To Cecilian Members

The Cecilian Music Club was very graciously entertained at the home of Mrs. G. Glen Hughes on Wednesday evening for the October meeting.

Mrs. Charles Sheridan, club president, opened the meeting by reading a poem about autumn and presented Mrs. Coyt Stookey who sang the Club Collect accompanied by Miss Margaret Gibson at the piano and the voice ensemble.

Miss Ann King, daughter of Mrs. Bruce King, Jr., was then introduced as the guest student artist for the month and very capably played two piano numbers; "Humoresque" by Dvorak and "Country Gardens," by Grainger.

Two new members, Mrs. Ralph Waln and Mrs. William Black were welcomed into the club. Also, several guests were greeted by the president.

Mrs. Sheridan then presented Miss Margaret Gibson, program chairman, who developed a beautiful program with the central theme "Autumn Reflections." The program was composed of musical numbers interspersed by poems typical of the autumn season and very beautifully read by Mrs. John Rhoads. Mrs. Lavern Morgan sang a vocal solo entitled "My God and I." Mrs. Coyt Stookey gave a piano solo "Autumn Leaves" and Mrs. Sheridan played a violin solo "Indian Summer."

Vance, Mrs. Jack Doyle and Miss Jean Everhart sang "Autumn Winds," "Clouds," "The Witch of the Skies" and "Haunted House." All members present were asked to join in singing "School Days," "Harvest Moon" and "America the Beautiful." Miss Gibson and Miss Everhart did the piano accompanying for the program.

At the close of the program, members and guests were invited to the dining room where the hostess committee composed of Mrs. David Foell, chairman, Mrs. George Pommert, Mrs. Malcolm Parrett, Mrs. Fred Enslin and Mrs. Lloyd Fennig had prepared a lovely tea table. Mrs. Sheridan and Mrs. Glen Jette presided at the tea table.

Baptist Women's Combined Meet

Twenty-nine members of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday evening for the combined fall meeting in the sanctuary of the church.

Mrs. Albert Fackler read an interesting article, "Obedience of Love." She also had an interesting display of the pictures of missionaries of the church and told of the great need of the people in the places they serve.

Mrs. Pat Simmons, Miss Briggs and Mrs. McNabb gave accounts of the work of the three special interest missionaries of the group. They are Florence Lalter, working among the Spanish migrant people in lower Michigan, Miss Lois Ann Griffin and the Rev. Lester Hunt on the foreign field.

Mrs. Ted Yoakum announced that Dr. Lewis Brown, ABC, home on furlough from the Congo, will speak at the church at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 16, Missionary Day. A covered dish supper will precede the program, in the social rooms at 6:30.

The meeting closed with the group singing "We've A Story To Tell To The Nations."

The dining room, in charge of Mrs. Ted Yoakum, was beautifully decorated with fall fruits and gourds, a background of bronze mums and orange candles at either end of the table. Seasonal refreshments were served by the officers of the society.

Frozen Orange Concentrate - The pack of frozen orange juice concentrate for the 1961-62 season was a real record breaker. In early July, with the season near the end, the pack had reached 115 million gallons, compared with the previous high of 84 million. August 1 stocks of frozen concentrate were 47 per cent greater than a year ago. Despite good consumer demand, this supply situation should mean a continuation of low retail prices. Retail prices in Cleveland and Cincinnati for June averaged around 20 cents per 6 ounce can. (Bureau Labor Statistics prices) compared with 24 to 25 cents per can in June 1961.

The percentage of car - owning American families having two or more automobiles is approximately 14 per cent.

Immanuel Church Building Started

Footers Being Poured For New Immanuel Baptist Church

Barring any unforeseen complications, the Immanuel Baptist Church Christmas services will be held in a new house of worship on Leesburg Ave. at the western edge of Washington C. H.

The footers and foundation were started Wednesday, and completion of the first unit is scheduled for completion by Christmas.

The congregation, which was established here Nov. 11, 1957, acquired the 1 1/4-acre tract on Leesburg Ave. at Wagner Way last April from Jess Gilmore.

Services have been held in several locations since the church was organized. Since July 1, the congregation has met in the Belle Aire School.

THE FIRST UNIT of the new church will front 105 feet on Leesburg Ave. and be almost in the center of the building. The 36-by-60-foot part on the east side will be used for Sunday School classrooms and the temporary sanctuary which can accommodate a congregation of 200 worshippers. The pulpit will be at the east end in front of the choir area.

The other portion of the building, about 36-by-45 feet at the west end, will include the heating system and Sunday School classrooms and nursery and an assembly hall which can be divided with a folding partition to form additional classrooms.

Long Lake No Shortcut To Ohio High School

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Teachers at nearby Coventry High School have heard a new reason for a student's being delayed in getting to school.

Ron Sarisky, a candidate for student council president, used a rowboat as a prop in his election campaign. The other day, he told teachers, he decided to row the boat to school across Long Lake as a shortcut.

However, a morning fog moved in on the lake, the young man explained, and navigational difficulties delayed his arrival considerably.

Foreign Investors In U.S. Given Ear

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—In judging which way the stock market is likely to jump don't count out the foreign holders of American common stocks.

What they think of the prospects for good or bad times ahead in the United States—the chances of higher profits or of a profit squeeze, the outlook for capital gains or losses, and particularly their views of individual companies—can have important, if limited, effect on prices on Wall Street.

Foreigners hold U.S. common stocks valued currently at nearly $12 billion. Any crisis selling—like that at the time of the Suez Canal pinch on Europe's economy—might be felt in American exchanges.

Usually foreign assessment of the situation here lines up pretty much with American investors' ideas. But the view from a distance sometimes can be different. In recent months Europeans have been quite free in offering Washington advice on how to handle its monetary and trade policies.

And what Europeans, Canadians and others think of how the American economy is shaping up could be important in setting some future stock market trends.

Americans, in turn, hold some $11 billion in common stock of foreign corporations. In the last few years the volume of these holdings has fluctuated more than has that of foreign investment in American ventures.

U.S. investors woke up late to the opportunities offered by a revived European economy. And recently they have been disappointed in the downturn of European stock prices, like those of American stocks, and have cut their holdings.

International bankers cite the $12 billion of U.S. stocks held abroad and the $11 billion of foreign stocks held here to point the moral that today the financial communities of the world are perhaps as closely tied as are the international political policies.

The Great Lakes support a commercial fishing industry which has a total catch of more than 26 million pounds a year.

People . . . Places . . . and Things Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

For many years a letter was mailed without an envelope by folding the letter, placing the address on the outside, marking amount paid to carry it, and consigning it to the mail for delivery.

Sometimes the letters were sealed so they could not be opened or damaged in the mail.

I have a letter sent to me by Rodney Gragg, of Bainbridge, written by a Washington C. H. man Sept. 1, 1846, to a Bainbridge resident.

At that time and for years afterward the letter S was made like the letter F particularly if there were two S letters together.

This 116-year-old letter was written with a quill pen, and the sheet of paper, 14 by 11, was folded until it was 3 1/2 by 4 1/4 inches. It was sealed with a bit of red wax.

The address reads:
"Wm. E. Rockhold, Bainbridge, Rofs County, Ohio." In the lower left corner is "Washington C. H., O., August 31st." The figure 3 is in the upper right corner, indicating that amount of postage was paid.

The letter, signed by F. B. Backenstoe, follows, with spelling as it was, (and in those days bad spelling was the rule rather than the exception.

"Washington Sept. 1, 1846
"Wm. E. Rockhold.

"Sir—I want you to rite to mee and let mee now weather you have Eney pad skins and Eney cafeskins for seating, and Lat mee now by the nex mail. I will inform you that whe are all well and getting a Long slow. Now more at present.

F. B. Backenstoe."

MORE TRUCKS

It is quite evident that fully one-fourth more trucks are using the highways at present than a year or so ago.

At all hours of the day and night these huge transports, with their heavy loads, roll over the main highways of the state at speeds up to 75 miles an hour, although the state limit is far below that figure.

However the average truck rambles along at 60 miles per hour, possibly more, and often two, three and even four trucks may move along in a string, apparently keeping each other company and rendering assistance in case of breakdown.

Most of the drivers are careful to give plenty of roadway, and few cut in too quickly after passing, but occasionally some reckless driver cuts in too quickly after passing at high speed, or one may crowd the center line.

When the new freeway is completed through this area, it is expected to do much toward lightening the truck traffic over the CCC highway.

LEAVE THEM ALONE

A present the most showy of nearly all fall wildflowers are the rich purple New England asters, which have a golden center, and, when growing with goldenrod, attract plenty of attention.

The most beautiful of all the more common wild asters, the New England aster is good to look at. But they are seldom used in bouquets because of their offensive odor.

LAST OF THE SEASON

Chrysanthemums are now in full bloom in the gardens at Kingwood Center, in the western part of Mansfield.

There is an outstanding collection of the various garden types of chrysanthemums, together with specially grown types seen only in greenhouses, and the new "Harvest Giant" kinds. This weekend they will be near the peak of bloom.

Roses and dahlias accompany the mums in this final display of the season, while the trees add to the general beauty of the gardens and environs.

Visitors are welcome from 8 a.m. until sundown, and signs clearly direct visitors to the gardens, founded by the late C. K. King, Mansfield industrialist. No admission is ever charged to the gardens.

BELATED REMINDERS

At dozens of places in the county I have seen, as late as within the past two weeks, evidence of the great ice storm which struck this part of Ohio and created havoc to trees and other property.

This big ice sheet enveloped much of this part of Ohio on Feb. 23, when more than 1 1/2 inches of freezing rain sent limbs and trees crashing to earth, tangled up communications until some lines were abandoned and new ones built; cut off power lines, and caused much inconvenience and discomfort.

Piles of limbs and brush, not yet disposed of, may be seen at many places in the county.

GROWS BIG CABBAGE

Perhaps it is a good thing Roy Robinett, of Robinett Bros. Garage, grew cabbage instead of beans, or there might have been a repetition of Jack's Bean Stalk of the misty past.

Anyway Roy, who lives at 806 Yeoman St., recently harvested 10 heads of cabbage from his garden, and used nine heads in making five gallons of kraut.

The tenth head which weighed 10 pounds and was 11 inches in diameter, is being used for other purposes.

The cabbage was produced from

Ohio Solons Trade Barbs Over Aquarium

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Michael J. Kirwan, D-Ohio, says a Republican colleague from the Buckeye State who criticized his support for a $10 million federal aquarium in Washington should "mind his own business."

Kirwan, who guided passage of an administration-supported bill to establish the National Fisheries Center and Aquarium, made the comment in reply to Rep. William H. Ayres, R-Ohio. Kirwan also said in plain words that he blocked $800,000 in public works appropriation for Oregon because of criticism of the fisheries center by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore. The bill to establish the aquarium was signed Tuesday by President Kennedy.

Ayres, of Akron, in a telephoned speech to the Wadsworth, Ohio, Rotary Club, said Kirwan, of Youngstown, helped get the bill passed "despite the fact that the major industry (steel) in his district is working at but 50 per cent of capacity with the resulting unemployment."

Kirwan replied in a statement: "He's like a lot more around here. If he would mind his own business he would do better. One of these days the voters in Akron might catch up with him."

Kirwan conceded Youngstown steel mills, like those in most of the country, are operating at only about 50 per cent of capacity. But, he added, the best industrial minds are unable to find a solution to the problem, so "if he (Ayres) knows any way to solve it he is wasting his time in Congress."

120 Historical Markers Are Listed For Kentucky

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Two $15,000 allotments have been made from the Governor's Emergency Fund to mark historic sites in Kentucky. The project includes marking about 120 places, many of Civil War significance.

Ten-foot-high aluminum signs are being ordered from Sewak Studios of Marietta, Ohio. Smaller markers are being cast in the University of Kentucky's metallurgical laboratory.

Changes Made In Lion Lineup For Game At Hillsboro Friday

The Lions of WHS will attempt to keep alive their flickering hopes in the South Central Ohio League championship scramble and to hand the Indians their first defeat of the season when the two teams clash for the 40th time in modern history Friday night at Hillsboro. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Lions, with an overall record of two wins and three losses and a SCO slate of 1-1, will be gunning for their 13th victory in 16 years against the Indians. The Indians are unbeaten in five games, including two league tilts, but were tied once in non-loop play. In the 39-game series between the two schools since 1923, WHS holds a big advantage with a 25-12-2 record.

The Blue and White will have a new look, personnel-wise, in their game Friday because of considerable juggling of both the starting offensive and defensive starting lineups by Coach Dick Anders. There will be eight changes in the offensive unit, including six switches on the line, and there will be three, and possibly four, on the defensive platoon.

The Lions and Indians have met annually on the gridiron from 1923 through 1961, except for a one-year lapse in 1949, in a series which has been marked by high scores and lopsided victories for the Lions. The biggest WHS victory over Hillsboro was a 72-6 rout in 1952 while the Indians' biggest win came, ironically, the next year when they blanked the Lions 59-0. On 10 occasions, the Lions have tallied more than 30 points against the Indians while Hillsboro has scored more than 30 points against the Blue and White.

The Lions, who hold a 25-12-2 advantage in the series, have enjoyed most of their success against Hillsboro during the last 15 years. In that period, WHS has won 12 of 15 games, including last season's 22-8 decision over the Indians in Gardner Park stadium.

FOR FRIDAY'S GAME at Hillsboro, Coach Anders has put four new boys into the starting offensive lineup and has changed the positions of four others who started last week. On defense, all three definite changes involve new starters while a fourth slot could be taken over by another newcomer.

The key personnel change will be at quarterback where 140-pound junior Bill Marting, starting left halfback last week, will start his first game as the signal-caller. During the Lions' first five games, he was in and out of the starting lineup as a half-back while handling second-string quarterbacking chores.

Taking over Marting's vacated spot at left halfback will be 145-pound junior Mike Garringer who has seen only limited action so far this season because of an ankle sprain. Right halfback, 165-pound senior John Thomas, has recovered from the flu which hampered him in last Friday's game and will be ready to go again. Fullback Allen Griffiths, a 160-pound sophomore, will join Thomas to give the Blue and White a potent one-two running punch.

Dale Lynch, 165-pound sophomore, and Tom Townsend, 140-pound sophomore, will back up Marting at quarterback. Townsend is returning to action after sitting out the first half of the season because of an ankle sprain and complications. Mike Randolph, Ron Wilson and Craig Knisley are in reserve at halfbacks while Tom Beseker can fill in at fullback.

THOMAS CONTINUES to pace the Lions in rushing. He has gained 452 yards in 79 carries for a 5.7 average. He has also caught four passes for 21 yards. He is the top individual scorer with 24 points on four touchdowns.

Griffiths is running close behind Thomas in the ground gaining department. The Lion fullback has ground out 374 yards in 83 tries for a 4.5 average. He has scored three TDs.

During WHS's first five games, Thomas and Griffiths have accounted for 159 of the Lions' 227 rushing attempts and have gained 826 yards of the Lions' 931 total rushing yards. They have scored seven of the Lions' eight touchdowns.

The position changes will have 250-pound senior Joe Burnett switching from guard to left tackle; 190-pound junior David Johns changing from tackle to right guard; and 215-pound junior Dan Isham shifting from guard to right tackle. Steve Anders, 150-pound junior, will be starting his third game at right end after shifting from center.

There will be only one senior on the starting offensive line, which includes three juniors and three sophomores. A senior, sophomore and two juniors will comprise the backfield. The line will average over 185 pounds while the backfield will average over 150 pounds.

IN THE STARTING defensive lineup, there will be five juniors, four seniors and two sophomores, averaging around 190 pounds on the front line and approximately 150 pounds in the secondary.

safety, and Griffiths at right safety.

ACCORDING to scouting reports, the Indians put up a rugged defense while beating Paint Valley, Williamsburg, Greenfield and Franklin Heights and tying Ironton but have not shown an exceptionally potent offense.

Quarterback Doug Bays paces the Indians' backfield which also includes Jim Burkett and Marvin Meddock at halfbacks. Tackle Will Parr is the standout on Hillsboro's big line. The Indians are gunning for the first SCO championship since 1930 when they copped their only SCO grid crown in history.

In speaking of the Lions' practice sessions this week, Coach Anders termed Tuesday's offensive practice as "good" but added that Wednesday's defensive work out was only "mediocre." The team has been stressing punting and kicking off this week.

The Lions will hold their final pre-game practice session Thursday from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m. under the lights in Gardner Park Stadium. The varsity will work on kickoffs, kickoff returns, punts, punt rushes and punt returns while also running a few offensive plays to sharpen up timing.

WHS Boosters Plan Caravan To Hillsboro

Plans for a caravan to follow the WHS Lions to Hillsboro Friday night for their third South Central Ohio League football game of the season were set in motion at Wednesday night's meeting of the WHS Boosters in the Hotel Washington banquet room.

Fans are being asked to meet at 6 p.m. at the Gardner Park field house and fall in line behind the bus carrying the team. They also are being asked to decorate their cars with banners and blue and white streamers.

The purpose of the caravan, Mac Dews Jr., booster president, said is to give the Lions, who were handed a 52-0 beating from Circleville's Tigers last week, some encouragement.

Assistant Coach Leonard Gwaizdowsky said in his scouting report that Hillsboro's Indians "have a good sound team." He added that the defense is tough and that on offense the Indians "can throw the ball or run with it."

In the short business session, the committee reported the sale of the Lion history pamphlet and WHS beanies and head scarfs brought in $59, more than four times as much as the previous sale.

The Boosters also voted to buy a pair of football shoes and to spend $25 for trophies to be presented to the outstanding players selected by Coach Dick Anders and his staff at the end of the year.

Movies of the Circleville game were not shown. Coach Anders explained that most of the Lions are young and impressionable and that to show their mistakes in slow motion would embarrass them unnecessarily.

A GIANT WIN FOR THE YANKS--Rookie Tom Tresh gets the glad hands from veteran teammates in the dugout after his three-run homer whipped the Giants, 5-3, in game number five of the World Series. Tom's father, Mike Tresh, former White Sox catcher, sat in the stands and watched him hit the homer.

Giants In Familiar Role: With Their Backs To Wall

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP)—It just had to happen. And now the Giants can try to bounce back once more.

San Francisco's own were one game from disaster today following Wednesday's 5-3 New York Yankee victory in New York that gave the American League champions a three-to-two edge in the World Series.

As the rivals prepare for the sixth game here Friday, the Yankees need only one more victory to record their 20th world championship in the last 40 years.

The Giants, of course, must win Friday's as well as the seventh game on Saturday to reign as champions. Since they were forced to come from behind all through the regular season, why should the script be scrapped in the World Series?

They didn't catch the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League race until the final day of the season after trailing since July 9. Then they had to overcome a 4-2 deficit with four runs in the ninth inning to win the final playoff game for the pennant.

The Giants' task is much more difficult now despite the fact the balance of the series will be played in their home park. They must beat southpaw Whitey Ford and right-hander Bill Stafford, although not necessarily in that order. Each owns a victory without having tasted defeat in the series.

Manager Alvin Dark of the Giants named lefty Billy Pierce, his sixth game pitcher, immediately after Wednesday's Yankee victory, which was triggered by Tom Tresh's three-run homer in the eighth inning. The blow by the rookie outfielder, off right-hander Jack Sanford, snapped a 2-2 tie and gave Ralph Terry his first World Series triumph after four defeats, one in the current series.

Dark, however, delayed naming the rest of the lineup until he learned the identity of the Yankee starting pitcher. New York manager Ralph Houk said his pitcher would be either Ford or Stafford, but declined to name him until after the workout this afternoon. "I still think we'll win it," said Dark, despite odds making the Yanks 3-1 favorites. "I've said all along the series will go seven games and we'll win it. I feel we can beat them two straight."

Houk did no gloating. He is fully aware that this has been a terrific struggle so far, with very little to choose between the two teams. Going into the seventh inning, neither team has had more than a one-run lead in any of the five games.

The Yankees have collected 38 hits to 37 for the Giants. Tresh's homer Wednesday was only the second for the Yankees. The Giants have hit five off Yankee pitching. Only in the first game has either team hit in double figures.

Two of the Yankees' hits Wednesday were "bleeders." One was a Texas League double by Tresh that shortstop Jose Pagan dropped after a long run. The other was a topped single by Richardson half way to the mound. The first two Yankee runs crossed the plate on a wild pitch and a passed ball. Pagan scored the first two Giant runs. He singled and scored on Chuck Hiller's double in the third and homered in the fifth.

Sanford retired the first batter in the eighth but never got another batter. After fanning Terry for his 10th strikeout, he yielded singles to Tony Kubek and Richardson. Then came Tresh's homer and Sanford was finished.

Dark, however, delayed naming the rest of the lineup until he learned the identity of the Yankee starting pitcher. New York manager Ralph Houk said his pitcher would be either Ford or Stafford, but declined to name him until after the workout this afternoon. "I still think we'll win it," said Dark, despite odds making the Yanks 3-1 favorites. "I've said all along the series will go seven games and we'll win it. I feel we can beat them two straight."

Plans For Oct. 19 Fish Fry Set Up At WAFCO Meeting

Committee chairmen were named and preliminary arrangements made for the annual WAFCO fish fry at the Wednesday noon meeting of the Washington Athletic Facilities Corp. in the Hotel Washington coffee shop.

The fish fry, which will be held at Gardner Park Oct. 19 before the WHS Lion-MT Panther football game, is designed to raise money to help pay off the $20,000 remaining of the $30,000 borrowed by WAFCO to build the north section of the WHS stadium. The loan is secured by notes signed by 64 individuals. First game was played in the enlarged stadium in 1959 and this will be the third WAFCO fish fry.

The "kitchen" tent will be put up on the lawn back of the field house and the tables on the adjacent tennis courts. Serving will start at 4:30 p.m. and continue until 8 p.m., when the game starts. Fish sandwiches will be served after the game.

The menu for the fried fish supper will be about the same as for the two previous fish fries. It will include baked beans, pie, slaw and coffee. The supper may be eaten at the tables on the tennis courts or taken home.

Max Lawrence, WAFCO president, appointed himself and Harry Thraill to arrange for the "kitchen" tent and fries; Paul Cummings to handle the tickets; Robert Lisk the tables on the tennis courts; Gene Mark and Marilyn Riley the food; Ralph Bray the pies; Dick Willis the table crew and Fred Domenico the serving lines.

Last year, more than 1,500 were served. Plans are being made to serve 2,000 to 2,500 this year. The fish fillets will be kept in a refrigerated truck and those which are not used will be returned at no cost to WAFCO.

Fish fry tickets at $1 each are available from all WAFCO members and at Bray's News & Sport Center.

Patterson Seeks New Liston Bout

BOSTON (AP)—Floyd Patterson's manager says the deposed heavyweight champion wants a rematch with Sonny Liston, who knocked him out last month and won his crown.

"There definitely will be a rematch," Cus D'Amato said Wednesday at a news conference. "It's in the original contract and Floyd will insist on a second fight."

D'Amato, deflating speculation that Patterson might not hold Liston to the rematch agreement, said Patterson feels the second fight "will be a very different one."

Liston knocked Patterson out in the first round of a scheduled 15-rounder in Chicago Sept. 25.

The Stars Say—By ESTRELLITA

For Tomorrow

PLANETARY aspects are mostly generous. Especially favored during the forenoon and early afternoon are business and financial dealings; also the launching of new ventures, whether of a professional or personal nature.

Don't waste time in needless discussion or controversy. This is a day for action.

For The Birthday

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that, as of now, many pressures of the past—in both your personal and business life—should have lifted and that you may feel more encouraged than you have in some time to expand your interests. This you can do, if you operate conservatively.

The next few days will be excellent for launching new projects.

Those who have marriage in mind will find late December and the period between June and September of next year highly propitious, and both travel and social activities could prove highly stimulating next July and August. January shows promise of fine developments in career matters, and the first six months of 1963 should be notable for excellent opportunities to further artistic goals.

A child born on this day will be versatile and highly-principled, but will dislike drudgery of any kind.

Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The usual number of good buys will prevail at most good store counters this week, but perhaps the most prominent will be these:

At fruit counters—apples. Meat counters—beef and broiler-fryer chickens.

Dairy counters—a wide variety of cheeses.

Vegetable counters—depending on the region, avocados, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, celery, lettuce, greens, onions, peppers, potatoes, squash and sweet potatoes.

A crop of 125 million bushels of apples is in prospect, some 3 per cent below 1961 but 11 per cent above average, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Cheese will be abundant because of the one per cent higher milk flow so far this year—the highest on record.

Broiler-fryers may be a few cents a pound higher than a year ago because of a slightly below record-level this year. However, the supply is considerably above average.

Agriculture Department reports show good supplies of beef, ranging from stew meats to steaks and roasts. Fresh pork cuts such as chops or loin roasts also will be at palatable prices this week.

Couple Million Holes

TULSA, Okla. — Nearly two million wells have been drilled for oil or gas since petroleum production began in this country. The Independent Petroleum Association of America put the total as of Jan. 1, 1962, at 1,869,299 — of which 28.2 per cent were dry holes.

MT Band To Give Two Shows At Homecoming Game Friday

The Miami Trace marching band, directed by Walter L. Hurd, has had a busier-than-usual schedule this week, preparing for not one, but two shows to be presented Friday night at the Panther Homecoming game with Franklin Heights in MTHS stadium.

The 88-piece band will perform during the special pre-game festivities, featuring the coronation of Queen Janet Hare, and again during halftime.

The black and gold of the visiting Franklin Heights band and black, white and gold of the Miami Trace outfits will blend when the two bands combine for the National Anthem at 7:30 p. m.

Then the bands will perform separately in pre-game shows with the Franklin Heights band taking the spotlight first.

To begin their pre-game show, the Miami Tracers will form a shield enclosing an "F H" in greeting the visitors; then, they'll form an "M T" in the shield to set the stage for the crowning of the queen.

After the queen and her court are escorted to their seats, the band will form a large entrance column, through which Coach Dan O'Brien's Miami Trace Panthers will charge onto the field for their game with the Falcons.

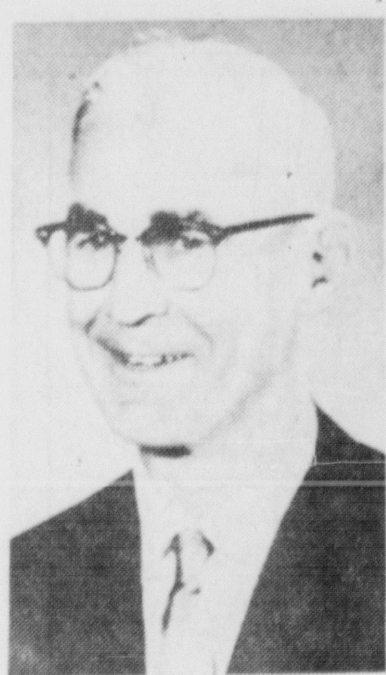

The halftime show for this week will carry the theme, "Cinderella Story," and will be presented in a humorous vein with a modern twist.

The first formation will be a "magic wand" needed to make the fairy godmother and the rest of the show develop.

Then the band will form a "white buck" shoe, instead of the glass slipper. The fairy godmother detests this, so the band conforms to her wishes and makes with the slipper.

The godmother wants Cinderella to have transportation to the Homecoming dance, so a pumpkin is formed—but this quickly turns into a fine, sports car to end the show.

After the traditional MT, the band will march off field.

DR. LEWIS A. BROWN

Missionary To Speak At Baptist Churches

Dr. Lewis A. Brown, an American Baptist missionary to the Congo, will speak at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Sugar Creek Baptist Church, Rt. 35-N, and at the First Baptist Church here at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday.

The Rev. Paul T. Minnich is pastor of the Sugar Creek Church and the Rev. Allen M. Falls is pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The service of Mr. and Mrs. Brown in the Congo area has been varied. They helped open the Vanga station, now one of the outstanding examples of Protestant work in Africa. Although primarily an evangelist, Dr. Brown used previous experience as an architect and builder in supervising the building of the Vanga hospital. After serving at Moanza, the Browns again helped open new Baptist work in the Congo. This was the Bible Institute at Kikongo where the Browns have been stationed for the past ten years. This school trains young Congolese for pastoral work. In addition to evangelistic and education work, Dr. Brown also directed the construction of most of the buildings at the Institute.

Although he did not tell the committee what his subject will be, he is expected to provide the background for a better understanding of the turbulent Congo and describe the people, their way of life and what the missionaries have done there.

Dr. and Mrs. Brown returned to the United States in July, 1960, because of troubles in the Congo after it gained its independence from Belgium.

Dr. Brown will speak here in connection with the missionary mobilization program of the American Baptist Convention.

NFO Chapter Gets Charter, Names Officers

The Fayette County chapter of the National Farmers Organization has elected officers after receiving its charter earlier this week.

Harold Ivers, chairman, said local membership is "in excess of 50".

Other officers of the group are Charles Campbell, vice chairman; David Carr, secretary; Frank Black, treasurer; Kenneth Walters, Donald Pemberton and Wilbur Neff, trustees.

The chapter will hold its next meeting Nov. 14 at 8 p. m. at the Merritt Supply Co., Oakland Ave.

William Peterson, assistant national staff director who has been doing organizational work in Fayette, Greene and Clark counties, has returned to his Missouri home to harvest crops. August Wissman, Shelby County, is taking over Peterson's duties during his absence.

The NFO is continuing its holding action on corn and soybeans, but the organization's livestock holding action has been suspended.

Faulty Wiring Blamed For Residential Blaze

City firemen spent 20 minutes Thursday morning extinguishing a small blaze in a one-story dwelling at 221 W. Temple St. The fire, reported at 7:40 a. m., reportedly was caused by faulty wiring in the ceiling. There was no estimate of damage.

The house is owned by Louis Baer, 421 E. Market St., and occupied by William Duncan and family.

put Congress on record backing any action, including the use of military force, needed to uphold Western rights in Berlin. Passage of the Berlin resolution was by voice vote. The House had approved the resolution earlier.

Both branches sent to Kennedy on Wednesday a $2,025,895,700 appropriations measure to run the State, Justice and Commerce Departments.

This left four money bills to be acted on, including the supplemental and the farm measure.

Another of these, the District of Columbia bill, is to be cleared today after cracking a deadlock.

The other, a $5 billion public works measure, has been agreed to in conference but is being held up for a number of reasons—one being that several Oregon projects were knocked out. But the leaders said they believed they had settled this by winning agreement to put them back in the supplemental.

Conferees quickly stitched together the $2.3 billion highway financing bill and said it would be sent along to the White House today.

Cemetery Wreaths, Containers Should Be Collected Now

The time for the annual fall clean-up at Washington Cemetery is rapidly approaching, now that the trees are shedding their leaves.

Cemetery Superintendent John Spangler asks those persons who wish to save pots, other containers and artificial wreaths, which are now on graves, to collect them within the next week or 10 days.

It will not be necessary to empty urns at this time, Spangler said.

Polish Train Wreckage Yields 34 Bodies

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Rescue crews still searched for victims today in the wreckage of two international express trains that collided in a fog, killing at least 34 persons and injuring 67 others.

Several hundred workers combed through the pileup of 16 coaches and two locomotives of the Chopin Express and the Balkan Express, involved Tuesday night 90 miles southwest of Warsaw in Poland's worst railway disaster since World War II.

Service Station Burglary Foiled

An unsuccessful attempt to gain entrance to the Farm Bureau service station, S. Fayette St., was made sometime Wednesday night. At 6:50 a. m. Thursday, Police Patrolman Robert Massie was called to the service station by attendant Herbert Dawes, who had discovered an 8 by 15 glass door pane broken on the south side of the building.

Apparently an attempt had been made to unlock the door from the inside, but the lock was of the type that requires a key.

years, starting in January. Of the $600 million in new revenue, $459 million will come from the added penny on first class and air mail stamps.

Second class users — mostly magazine and newspaper publishers — will have their mailing costs increased by $2.4 million after three years, chiefly through three annual increases of 4 per cent for editorial matter, and three 10 per cent increases for advertising matter.

New third class rates will bring in $93.7 million in new revenue, $39.5 million of it through an increase from 2½ cents per piece of bulk advertising mail to 2 cents after three years.

The rate for a single piece of third class mail goes up from 3 cents to 4 cents, bringing in an additional $34.5 million. This is the class used by those who send Christmas cards with the envelopes unsealed.
